Stakeholders' Dialogue on Illegal Up- and Downloading: the report

Encouraged by the European Commission, stakeholders have discussed and exchanged ideas related to the illegal up- and downloading of works protected by copyright during the last year. A summary report of the discussions was prepared and made public this Monday. In case you are interested in online copyright infringement and want to know the current concerns of stakeholders in this area you may wish to read this public report available on the European Commission's website.
