On 14-18 September 2020, the Jagiellonian University in Kraków, Poland, invites undergraduate, graduate and postgraduate (PhD) law students as well as young professionals to the 2020 Kraków Intellectual Property Law Summer School. This year, due to the COVID-2019 pandemic, the Summer School will be held online. In line with the leitmotiv of this year's programme – which is IP Quality - the 2020 edition of the Summer School will be a platform for critical thinking about the quality and value of IP today. The speakers and lecturers are recognised specialists in the area of intellectual property, both from foreign and Polish universities, representatives of the IP offices (WIPO, EPO, EUIPO) and international organisations as well as practitioners with hands-on experience in IP cases.
